Linen Collars and Cuffs at less than one-fifth their value. Pay no attention to any other signs or banners displayed by other merchants to deceive the public, but come direct to the building, 428 Lackawanna avenue, between Wyoming and Washington avenues, in the building formerly occupied by the Scranton Savings Bank and Trust company.

P. S.—Positively no one allowed in the building and no goods sold until the opening day, Friday, September 29th, at 9 a. m.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

MISS MCCORMY SELECTED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD.

She Will Have Charge of the Business Course in the Schools—Dunmore High School Foot Ball Team Will Play Scranton High School Team Saturday—Pennsylvania Coal Company Has Completed a Brick Addition to Their Planing Mill. Master Webster Altemose Tendered a Surprise.

The adjourned special meeting of the school board to elect a teacher for the recently adopted business course in the borough school was held Tuesday evening. Mr. Spencer requested that the business of electing a teacher be taken up immediately to allow the candidates present to retire. The applicants present were Miss Mary Kearney, Miss Daisy McCormy and James McHale. At this juncture Mr. McHale withdrew his application and Secretary Kellam read the withdrawals of the names of John Irwin and Mr. Tompkins as applicants.

Discussions then took place regarding the merits of the different systems and shorthand and business forms. It was decided to appoint a committee consisting of the successful applicant, the superintendent of schools and a director to examine the different systems and report. The election of a teacher next took place and the first ballot was as follows: Miss Mary Kearney—Costello, Miller and Weber—2. Miss Daisy McCormy—Spencer and Killam—2.

The second and third ballots resulted in the same.

The roll was again called and resulted in Miller, Weber and Kellam voting for Miss McCormy and Costello for Miss Kearney. President Weber declared Miss McCormy elected. The resignation of Miss Bessie Easton was read and accepted. The election of a teacher to fill her place will take place at the next regular meeting.

FOOT BALL GAME.

The Dunmore high school foot ball team will face the Scranton high school eleven on Saturday afternoon at Athletic park.

The line up of the high school eleven from this place will be as follows: Left end, Ruane; left tackle, Haggerty; left guard, Moynihan; center, Flannery; right tackle, Sweeney; right guard, O'Neil; right end, Beckman; quarter back, Gilmer; right half back, Cleary; left half back, Johnson; full back, Horan.

Under Manager James Horan and Prof. Charles Niemeyer the team has made wonderful improvement and will doubtless make a good showing against the Scranton boys.

BUDGET OF BRIEVITIES.

Miss Bessie Easton, teacher of the first primary room in No. 4 school building has accepted a position in the Scranton schools.

The Pennsylvania Coal company has just completed the addition to their planing mill, which has been in the hands of workmen for the past three months.

The management committee of the Dunmore Co-operative society held a meeting Monday evening. The reports showed the society in a flourishing condition under the management of Frank Hollock.

Dunmore lodge, No. 816, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers last evening: Noble guard, Thomas P. Keller; vice guard, J. G. Bone; secretary, Byron Brady; assistant secretary, James Dainty; treasurer, Henry Voth; trustee, George Harper; representative, Arthur Spencer.

The young friends of Master Webster Altemose gathered in a body and very pleasantly surprised him at his home on Brook street Tuesday evening.

A business meeting of the Miners' union was held last evening.
